

Sentence Combining

New Directions: Use what you have learned about combining subjects and making sure that the verbs agree with them. Note: in #2 and #6, if you use and, do you see what additional changes you may need to make?

1. My friend is supposed to meet me. My sister is supposed to meet me.

---
2. The morning is the best time for running. The afternoon is the best time for running.

---
3. Our doctor is kind. Our doctor is sincere. Our doctor is patient.

---
4. We're having a quiet party. We're having a friendly party. We're having an inexpensive party.

---
5. They're inviting friends. They're inviting relatives. They're inviting neighbors.

---
6. Christmas is a school holiday. Thanksgiving is a school holiday

---
7. We celebrate Christian holidays. We celebrate Jewish holidays. We celebrate Muslim holidays.

---
8. No runners from our school finished first. No runners from our school finished second. No runners from our school finished third.

---
9. We used to have an Irish Setter. We used to have a Persian cat. We used to have a Chihuahua.

---
10. Coats are required. Ties are required. They are required in our school.

---